Excellent Rules to Promote Harmony Among Church Members

- To remember that we are all subject to failings of one kind or another.
- To bear with--and not magnify--each other's infirmities.
- To pray for one another in our social meetings, and particularly in private.
- To avoid going from house to house, for the purpose of bearing news and interfering with other people's business.
- Always turn a deaf ear to any slanderous report and to lay no charge against any person until well founded.
- If a member be in fault, tell him of it in private, before it is mentioned to others.
- To watch against the shyness of each other and put the best construction on any action that has the appearance of opposition or resentment.
- To observe the just rules of Solomon--that is, to leave off contention before it is meddled with.
- If a member has offended, to consider how Godlike it is to forgive, and how unlike a Christian it is to seek revenge.
- Remember that it is always a giant artifice of the devil to promote distance and animosities among members of the church; and we should therefore watch against everything that furthers this end.

Consider how much more good we could do in the church (and in the world at large) when we are all united in love, than we could ever do when acting alone, and indulging in a contrary spirit.

- Ivie Powell

“Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.
See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.”

Psalms 139:23-24

We All Need Jesus

Verse 1

We're so quick to point a finger
And judge things from our point of view
The things that we say the trouble it makes
It hurts you and it hurts me too

This is such a fallen world we live in
It's really not the way it's supposed to be
What if we could see each other different
It'd probably change everything

Chorus

We're all broken people
Don't we all need Jesus
Every moment of our lives
Twenty-four three-six-five
Our human is equal
Don't we all have our weakness
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody needs that grace
We all need Jesus
Don't we all need Jesus

Verse 2

Everybody needs a Savior
Even the ones who think they don't
We've got stuff we hide deep down inside
There's so much that we don't show

Yeah it's just a wounded world we live in
It's really not the way it's supposed to be
Isn't that the beauty of redemption
It changes everything

Bridge

From the beggar to the rich man
From the prisoner to the preacher
All I know is we all need Jesus
All I know is we all need Jesus
Every man and every woman
Every city every nation
All I know is we all need Jesus
All I know is that

Ending

We need Jesus need Jesus
Everybody in the world need Jesus
We need Jesus need Jesus
Everybody in the world need Jesus
