A man was asked to paint a boat. He brought his paint and brushes and began to paint the boat a bright red, as the owner asked him. While painting, he noticed a small hole in the hull, and quietly repaired it. When he finished painting, he received his money and left.

The next day, the owner of the boat came to the painter and presented him with a nice check, much higher than the payment for painting. The painter was surprised and said "You've already paid me for painting the boat Sir!"

"But this is not for the paint job. It's for repairing the hole in the boat."

"Ah! But it was such a small service... certainly it's not worth paying me such a high amount for something so insignificant."

"My dear friend, you do not understand. Let me tell you what happened. When I asked you to paint the boat, I forgot to mention the hole. When the boat dried, my kids took the boat and went on a fishing trip. They did not know that there was a hole. I was not at home at that time. When I returned and noticed they had taken the boat, I was desperate because I remembered that the boat had a hole. "Imagine my relief and joy when I saw them returning from fishing. Then, I examined the boat and found that you had repaired the hole! You see, now, what you did? You saved the life of my children! I do not have enough money to pay our 'small' good deed."

So no matter who, when, or how, continue to help, sustain, wipe tears, listen attentively, and carefully repair all the 'leaks' you find. You never know when one is in need of us, or when God holds a pleasant surprise for us to be helpful and important to someone. Along the way, you may have repaired numerous 'boat holes' for several people without realizing how many lives you've saved.

Make a difference....be the best you... Have a blessed day

"This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone."- Titus 3:8 (NIV)

"In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."- Matthew 5:16 (NIV)

"And as for you, brothers and sisters, never tire of doing what is good."
- 2 Thessalonians 3:13 (NIV)

"Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."- Galatians 6:9 (NIV)

Prayer List

- Jim Hamlet, the brother of a friend of Wayne Hammock, is currently hospitalized in Blaine from a major stroke. The family is keeping vigilance at the hospital and it is hard on all of them as it may not be possible for him to go home. Pray for God to do the best for Jim and for peace for the family.
- Wayne's great grandson June now has a patch on his body that monitors his blood sugar which June likes much better. Continue prayers for June and stabilizing his diabetes.
- Pray for our children as they prepare for their participation in Leadership Training for Christ (LTC).
- Jon Powless' friend Mark, whose sister-in-law, Julie is recovering from a double-lung transplant. Mark has asked to put her on the prayer list for healing. She is in Florida, and Mark will travel there every few weeks to share in her care.
- Pray for Neda Herbert, who is receiving heart treatment.
- Continue to pray for Nancy Armenta's sister Ida's recovery.
- Pray for Alyssa, our new Sister in Christ.
- There are a lot of illnesses currently in our area. Pray for quick healing for all those who are suffering, and for safety for all those suffering in the cold weather.
- Pray for our Deacons and their families: Josh Bedford, Dan Gross, Roger Taylor, Fuzzy Volpitta, and Gary White. Floyd Whitlock, Cisco Velez.
- Pray also for our Elders and their families: Gary Chasteen, Darrell Fry, Bob McDaniel, Brad Orser, Dave Snynn & Greg Warner. Pray also for Trent and the many missions within our congregation as we work toward God's plan for us.

Give Me Your Eyes

Verse 1

Look down from a broken sky
Traced out by the city lights
My world from a mile high
Best seat in the house tonight
Touch down on the cold black top
Hold on for the sudden stop
Breathe in the familiar shock
Of confusion and chaos
All those people going somewhere
Why have I never cared

Chorus

Give me Your eyes for just one second
Give me Your eyes so I can see
Everything that I keep missing
Give me Your love for humanity
Give me Your arms for the broken-hearted
The ones that are far beyond my reach
Give me Your heart for the ones forgotten
Give me Your eyes so I can see

Interlude

Yeah yeah yeah yeah

Verse 2

Step out on the busy street
See a girl and our eyes meet
Does her best to smile at me
To hide what's underneath
There's a man just to her right
Black suit and a bright red tie
Too ashamed to tell his wife
He's out of work he's buying time
All those people going somewhere
Why have I never cared

Bridge

I've been here a million times
A couple of million eyes
Just move and pass me by
I swear I never thought that I was wrong
Well I want a second glance
So give me a second chance
To see the way You've seen the people all along

Ending

Yeah yeah yeah yeah

Give Me Your Eyes
