
Port Orchard Church of Christ

Where

Jesus is Lord, Jesus is Lifted, Jesus is Lived

A real church family

This week I had quite the adventure going to Oregon to take our first load of moving stuff down. My dad and I left Port Orchard around 1pm and started the three hour drive to the new house. During our trip there was a fatal crash that happened just south of us before crossing the bridge into Oregon, this crash closed down that section of I-5 for 6 hours! As we looked for an alternate route we ended up finally making it to the new place 7 hours after we left Port Orchard.

Not to mention that the temperature was right around 100 degrees as we waited on the freeway, it was a longer trip than it really should have been.

Thinking that, that was quite the trip and going home should be much smoother I left Portland around noon after lunch with my brother and headed north. It was definitely a beautiful day to ride the motorcycle. Sunny and less hot than the prior day. I made it all the way to Centralia when my bike pattered a little and then proceeded to die on me. Suddenly the nice 85 degree sunshine became a trial. After calling everyone I could think of, getting a ride from a stranger to the nearest gas station, and sitting dejectedly at a McDonalds just across the way I got a text back from Trent Herbert.

He came from a hard days work with his family in tow and helped me load my bike and safely transport it home! He really saved my bacon.

So this week the idea of generosity and family has been on my mind. Many people in their day to day don't get a solid picture of what it is that a church provides. The idea of "family" at church is a nice word, but not a practical idea. I think it is vitally important that we recognize sometimes what this family means and how it serves Christ.

I am so grateful for Trent and his family, for the help they gave me, but moreover for the life they provide to our church. Each of us play a part in being the hands and feet of Christ. This week my prayer is that you take time to thank whoever has shown you Christ this week!

Welcome Guests

We are so glad that you decided to try out Port Orchard Church of Christ this morning! Since you took this step to join us for worship, I would like to give you a warm welcome to our congregation. Wherever you are this morning, as we lift worship to God, I pray that you are able to leave feeling uplifted, convicted, or encouraged in your faith.

We seek here to worship God like the first century church did, with a sense of awe and with a fear of the Lord. Some things we do might seem old fashioned or traditional, but we want you to know that at its core, it is for the praise of God's glory.

You are not required to do anything weird or ostentatious. We hope that you feel free to join us in worshipping God to the best of your abilities. If you have any specific needs we have a ministry staff that would love to connect with you. Ask the people sitting around you for their names and to point them out!

Once again, we are so happy to have you here worshipping with us and we hope this is a chance to worship God in a deep and meaningful way.

Pulpit Preview— James to preach

This week we will be hearing a sermon from James Greer. As he comes before us to share with us from the Word let us prayerfully look for the Spirit in his message.

Happy Birthdays!

June has arrived! Summer is close, and Father's day is around the corner. With the arrival of the longest day and hot days and flowers we have a new set of birthdays to celebrate! If you see any of these following brothers and sisters make sure to wish them a happy birthday!

3— Ray Switzer. 11— Judy VanLeuvan. 15— Lila Mason. 19— Christina Nystrom. 23— Miki Gross. 24— Kenny Benjamin. 26— Pilita David. 29— Greg Warner.

SERVING OPPORTUNITIES

Meals Needed

Bonnie Mitchell, along with Pene Hammock and Judy Van Lueven will be coordinating the temporary providing of meals on occasions when they are requested. Upon receiving the request, we will coordinate with the family to ascertain their needs — length of time, dietary restrictions etc. Once this has been determined through various means of communication we will contact the families here at POCOC for those who would like to participate with providing the meals.

Nursery and Communion

Thank you to all who served in the nursery and preparing and cleaning up communion this year!

Are you gifted with little kids? Would you like to serve somehow but don't know where to start? We have just the place for you! We need for more people to sign up for doing the nursery and communion prep/clean-up for 2016. There are only a few slots left for Communion, so if you feel like you are willing and able, please sign up in the foyer for the next opportunity on our community board. We will be printing a new Nursery sign up soon!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wilson Baby Shower

There will be a baby shower for the Wilsons on June 12th during the usual time for the senior saints potluck. Everyone is invited! If you are interested in being a part of the group gift then speak with Tiffany Rousseau, Carla Duffy or Katrina Coley!

Senior Blessing

Attention Seniors: Elizabeth Herbert, MT Herbert, Chris Hill, Aleya White, Isaiah Zepf and Seth Cartwright. Senior blessings will be on Sunday, June 19. The blessing will be part of the 10:45 church service in place of the usual sermon. After the service concludes we will go down stairs for the viewing of the tables. More info to come on that.

Seniors, we will need 40 to 60 pics brought to the church by this coming Sunday so that we can get them onto your videos. Trent has said he is willing to do this for us, so if you have questions concerning this please contact him.

Our Prayer List

Healing for: Gary Chasteen, David Latham, Doloris Brun, Jodon Mason, Ben Mason, Karen Taylor.

Kara Mitchell's lumpectomy, that it shows no signs of cancer.

Eunice Orser and her family as they mourn the loss of her mother.

Guidance for our deacons as they make decisions regarding our family and church.

Cody and Tiffany as they prepare to start a new journey in their lives.

Josh and Savannah that their baby continues to grow healthily and that Savannah is able to stay healthy.

Deja Cormier as she is adapting to life with a third child, that she and her kids will be healthy and safe.

Prayer for our homebound and infirm as they are unable to attend worship and fellowship with the family.

Prayers for our church as it works through Growth Group materials and seeks to grow in love, faith, and hope.
