Substitute Bulletin – WWPDP?

Chatted with Kelly. She is back at the end of the week, but will have plenty to catch up on. So, we agreed to subject you to my substitute bulletin one more time.

It was about 2 am. There was frost on the ground my bare feet did not seem to notice. Given the opportunity to exchange the curtain wrapped around my naked body for jeans, I was ecstatic. Lori and our unborn child were safe at a neighbor's house. As the fire department began to sift through the remains of our house, I was asked if we had some we could call...

Lori had been having problems for a while. The tests left no doubt. Her gall bladder needed to come out. With a toddler and infant at home. I had health insurance, but no vacation time. We could not afford the loss of pay. The surgeon said, "It's unusual, but I have an opening tomorrow."...

Again, about 2 am (what is it about that time?) The one insensitive nurse I have ever met had told us a few short hours ago, "If your FETUS is going to ABORT, there's nothing you can do about it." Now it had happened. And our CHILD had gone home to be with the Lord, before we had ever got to even hear their heart beat. With a heavy heart I dialed familiar numbers...

What is your reaction when the Lord gives you a chance to be weak? To not have the answers? To need to lean on Him, especially through a brother or sister in Christ?

Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

John 13:3-8

So, What Would Peter Do? And what WILL YOU do with the next chance to be SERVED by the Lord?

Welcome Guests

We are so glad that you decided to visit Port Orchard Church of Christ this morning! Since you took this step to join us for worship, we would like to extend to you a warm welcome. Wherever you are this morning, as we lift worship to God, we pray that you are able to leave feeling uplifted, convicted, or encouraged in your faith.

We seek to worship God like the first century church did, with a sense of awe and with a fear of the Lord. Some things we do might seem old fashioned or traditional, but we want you to know that at its core, it is for the praise of God's glory.

You are not required to do anything weird or ostentatious. We hope that you feel free to join us in worshipping God to the best of your abilities. If you have any specific needs, we have a ministry staff that would love to connect with you. Ask the people sitting around you for names of the ministry staff and to point them out!

Once again, we are so happy to have you here worshipping with us and we hope this is a chance to worship God in a deep and meaningful way.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Darrell Fry

Darrell Fry shared another wonderful message about heaven. If you missed his take on "Will there be Tattoos in Heaven?", or just want another listen, please visit the church website at pococ.weebly.com

(That's all folks, only two pages. We need Kelly for a real bulletin, but praise God, she's back!!!)
